ONCE IS ENOUGH TO SEE M. F. Corley, Lott 8a, Ky.

Gustave Dors's portrait of Dante is worth seeing—once. But once is enough. Some such look you notice on the foces of those who have suffered, and still suffer, much physical pain; people subject to rheumatiam, gout, neuralgia, periodio headache, tumbagood, heutagia, period nesinone, tumos-go, or pain from some old lesion. This pain-habit puts its merke on them, as the custom of heudling ropes crooks a sailor's fingers; or as too much riding of a bicycle stamps a worried expression on certain faces. No wonder people said of the Italien poet as he passed along. "There goes
